Dear Pilgrims,

Could Jesus be inviting you on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land in Lent, 2026? Could it be that the time for your "someday" journey has arrived?

I invite you to prayerfully consider joining me and other Catholic pilgrims in Nazareth, Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Once back home, every Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter will be deeper and fresher because of what you see and experience for yourself in Lent 2026. LP Pilgrimages offers us a pilgrimage experience that is an expression of their own Catholic faith. Living in the Holy Land, they are living the life of Christ's resurrection. They are the faithful who follow Christ on the Way of the Cross and they are the living stones that cry out in joy. For 2000 years they have opened their lives and homes in hospitality to pilgrims. Please take a few moments to look at the description of the places we will visit, and then set it aside. If the Holy Spirit speaks to your heart, then pick up the itinerary again and study it more carefully. Ask yourself, "Do I have the means and ability to undertake a journey like this?" Consider that for this pilgrimage there has been no price increase. Then ask the Lord whether He may be truly calling you to consider it more carefully. If you would like, call or email me and I will do my best to answer your questions based on my own past 35 years of Holy Land pilgrimages. God bless you as you make your own pilgrimage to Him.
